THE UNION MARSEILLAISE.

AIR—The Marseilles Hymn.

Arise! Arise! ye sons of patriot sires!
A Nation calls! and Heaven speed your way.
Now Freedom lights anew her waning fires,
And spreads her banner to the day,
And spreads her banner to the day.
While to His Throne our hearts are swelling,
Freedom, and Law, and Truth, and Right,
May God defend by his own might,
By his right arm the treason quelling,
Ye loyal sons, and true,
Sons of the brave and free,
Join hearts, join hands, to strike anew,
For God and Liberty.

With faith your all to Him confiding
Who crowned with victory our fathers' hand,
With courage in his strength abiding,
Go forth in Freedom's sacred band,
Go forth to save our native land.
Defend from faction's wild commotion,
Our homes, our laws, our schools and spires,
The names and graves of patriot sires,
Till Freedom reigns to furthest ocean.
Ye loyal sons and true,
Sons of the brave and free,
Join hearts, join hands, to strike anew
For God and Liberty.

A YANKEE MAN-OF-WAR.

Down by yonder valley, I carelessly did stray,
I overheard a sailor; unto his love he did say :
Susy, lovely Susy, I soon must leave this shore,
To fight against Jefferson Davis on the Yankee Man-of-war.

Johnny, dearest Johnny, do not go away from me:
The Rebels are as treacherous as any Portuguee;
With some deadly weapon, you may receive some scars;
Jolly Sailor, do not venture on the Yankee Man-of-war.

Susy, lovely Susy, the truth to you I'll tell;
The Stars and Stripes were insulted, and the Yankees
know it well;

I may be crowned with glory, just like some valliant Tar,
In facing the forts of the Rebels, on the Yankee Man-of-war.

Taking out his handkerchief, and tearing it in two,
He said: here is one half of it, the same I'll give to you;
May the bullets fly around me, and Rebel cannons roar,
I will fight against Jefferson Davis, on the Yankee
Man-of-war.

A few more words together, and he let go her hand,
As the jolly Crew surrounded the Boat, she merrily
rowed from land;

The sailor waved his handkerchief, and far away from shore
Susy blessed the Sailor on the Yankee Man-of-war!

THE ARMY OF LIBERTY.

AIR—I'm Glad I'm in this Army.

Come rally for our country,
For God is on our side;
Come rally for our country,
For God is on our side.
He will aid the cause of Freedom,
He will aid the cause of Freedom.
For which our Fathers died.

CHORUS.—I am glad I'm in this army,
I am glad I'm in this army,
I am glad I'm in this army,
For God is on our side :
He will aid the cause of Freedom,
He will aid the cause of Freedom,
For which our Fathers died.

In the war of Independence
The battle was begun
In the war of Independence
The Battle was begun.
In the glorious name of Freedom,
In the glorious name of Freedom,
The victory was won.
I am glad I'm in this army, &c.

In the conflict with treason
The battle ne'er give o'er,
In the conflict with treason
The battle ne'er give o'er ;
For the right will ever triumph ;
For the right will ever triumph,
And reign forevermore.
I am glad I'm in this army, &c

Come join our glorious army,
The victors we shall stand ;
Come join our glorious army,
The victors we shall stand,
Shouting Liberty forever,
Shouting Liberty forever,
Throughout our happy land.
I am glad I'm in this army, &c.,
For the victors we shall stand,
Shouting Liberty forever, &c.

THE FLAG OF OUR UNION.

"A song for our banner!"—the watchword recall,
Which gave the Republic a station !
"United we stand—divided we fall !
It made and preserves us a nation !

CHORUS.

The union of lakes--the union of lands—
The union of States none can sever—
The union of hearts— the union of hands—
And the Flag of the Union forever
And ever !
The Flag of the Union forever !

What God in his mercy and wisdom design'd
And arm'd with his weapons of thunder,
Not all the earth's despots and factions combined
Have the power to conquer or sunder !

Chorus. The union of lakes, &c.

Oh keep the flag flying !—the pride of the van !
To all other nations display it !
The ladies for union are all to a—man !
But not to the man who'd betray it.

Chorus —The union of lakes, &c.

VOLUNTEER'S SONG.

AIR—Free and Easy.

Onward! onward! is the cry now,
Treason stalks throughout the land;
To guard our honor each one try now,
March together, heart and hand.

CHORUS.

So let the Southerners do as they will,
We will fight for the Union still!
Fight for the Union!
Fight for the Union!
We will fight for the Union still!

Though Revolution, dark as night,
Enshrouds the Banner of the Free,
There are none so base that will not fight
For this great land of Liberty!

The traitors would the Union sever
Our fathers worked so hard to form;
Yet we are for the Union ever,
Through sunshine, peace, or storm!

Then hear! Oh hear! our country's call,
Raise our glorious banner high;
Come, rally! rally! one and all!
To save the Union or to die!

Rally round the flag, boys, give it to the breeze,

That's the banner we love, on the land and seas,

Brave hearts are under it, let the traitor brag,

Gallant lads, fire away, and fight for the flag.

Their flag is but a rag, ours is the true one,

Up with the stars and stripes, down with the new one,

Let our colors fly, boys; guard them day and night,

For victory is liberty, and God will bless the right

Floating high above us, glowing in the sun,

Speaking to all hearts of a freedom won,

Who dares assault it, bought with precious blood,

Gallant lads will fight for it, tho' ours shall the flood.

Raise then the banner high, ours is the true one,

Up with the stars and stripes, down with the new one,

Let our colors fly, boys, guard them day and night,

For victory is liberty, and God will bless the right.
